ATTACHMENT: Veal Implant

Implants

- Veal producers normally place implants below the skin on the dorsal (top) surface of the ear.
- An implant consists of multiple cylindrical shaped pellets approximately $\frac{1}{8}^{th}$ inch in diameter and length. The color is normally white. Size does decrease with time and will affect the ability to palpate the implant.