RETAIL CONSIGNEES FOR FSIS RECALL 013-2014

Editor's Note added on March 20, 2014: As of March 14, 2014, all FSIS recall effectiveness and product disposition verification checks for FSIS Recalls 002-2014 and 013-2014 regarding Rancho Feeding Corporation have been completed. FSIS has determined, based on the number of successful checks (the businesses were notified of the recall, and that they may have received the products), that the recall activities were effective (see FSIS Directive 8080.1, Attachment 1, Table 3). There will be no further additions to the distribution list. Because of widespread interest in FSIS Recalls 002-2014 and 013-2014, FSIS has made a decision to temporarily leave the recall releases and distribution lists in the "active" section of the recalls website, rather than moving it to the "archive" section, as is usual policy, in an effort to continue to make the information as accessible as possible.

Recall 013-2014 was issued by the slaughterhouse, and the carcasses that are the subject of the recall were shipped to other establishments where they were further processed into smaller cuts or processed products, like frozen entrée products. If you are concerned about meat purchases at one of stores included on this distribution list, ask the store manager or manager of the meat department if any meat, including raw or processed product, was implicated in recall 013-2014.

EDITOR'S NOTE added on February 18, 2014: FSIS decided to reissue the recall release first issued on Feb. 8, 2014 and updated on February 14, 2014. When the recall release was first issued on February 8, FSIS was unable to ascertain what facilities were involved. As the facilities were notified, the list of States affected grew. FSIS now believes that recalled product was shipped to distribution centers and retail establishments nationwide. This update is a consequence of a properly working recall process. Retail establishments may issue their own recall statements to inform the public about products processed with meat associated with this recall.
