Export Requirements for Slovenia

Export Alert

Please be advised that Slovenia will become a member of the European Union effective May 1, 2004. As of that date, the export requirements currently in place for Slovenia will be replaced by those governing shipments to the EU. Therefore, effective May 1, 2004, all shipments of EU harmonized product to Slovenia must comply with EU export requirements. These requirements are available in the EU section of this library of export requirements.*

Eligible/Ineligible Products

Ineligible Products - Meat and poultry products are not eligible for export to Slovenia at this time. Slovenia has imposed additional certification requirements for meat and poultry. Until new certification language can be agreed upon, export certification cannot be provided.
