

Label on the top of the individual packages which contains the product name, establishment number. The safe handling and nutrition facts are located on the bottom of the package. At the bottom of the label of the nutrition facts it states the time the product passed the scale, what line the product was produced on and the Julian date.

