

United States Department of Agriculture

Food Safety and Inspection
Service

Washington, D.C.
20250

Letterhead Certificate for Egg Products Intended for Export to Colombia

Date Issued _____ Certificate Number _____

1. The processing plant is under official sanitary surveillance.
2. The state where the raw materials originate and the state where the processing plant is located have not registered outbreaks of avian influenza (H5 and H7 subtypes) in the last two years.
3. The product is pasteurized according to USDA regulation. Microbiological tests on representative samples of the product were conducted with negative results for Salmonella.
4. The manufacturing and packaging process assures that the product was handled in a manner to prevent recontamination.
5. The product is used without restriction in the origin country and is fit for human consumption.

Signature of FSIS Official _____

Printed Name _____

Title/Professional Degree _____