

United States Department of Agriculture

Food Safety and Inspection
Service

Washington, D.C.
20250

Letterhead Certificate for Natural Pork Casings Used in Processed Meat Products for Export to Japan

Date Issued: _____ Certificate Number: _____

1. The casings do not have risk of infection with contagious animal disease as determined by ante- and postmortem inspection conducted by official USDA inspectors; or if the casings are imported from third countries, at the time of import into the United States, it has been confirmed that the casings do not have risk of infection with contagious animal disease by health certificates issued by the originating government.
2. Natural pork casings from _____ (country of origin).

Signature of FSIS Inspection Official: _____

Printed Name: _____

Title/Professional Degree: _____