CANCELLATION OF FSIS DIRECTIVES

As part of the review of all FSIS directives, the Office of Policy and Program Development has identified additional obsolete directives for cancellation. As noted below, one directive is no longer needed because of new regulations; the others are old and no longer necessary. Therefore, FSIS is cancelling the following obsolete directives:

3710.1, Employee's Claims for Loss or Damaged Personal Property, 10/23/84

3530.2 Rev. 1, Replacement of Non-salary Government Checks, 3/4/86

4339.1 Rev. 1, Medical Determinations Relating to Employment, 9/18/85

4735.6, Safeguarding Confidential Industry Information, 3/25/85

5030.5, Review of Egg Products Plants Drawings and Specifications, 9/12/16 (FSIS removed requirements for drawings and specifications in the final rule "Egg Products Inspection Regulations" (85 FR 68640))

9030.1. Rev. 1, Targeting for High-Risk Imported Product Shipments, 10/26/10

FSIS personnel are to dispose of all copies of the above listed directives, including paper or electronic versions.
