RE: FOIA-2018-00328

Dear Mr. Lawton:

This is the final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, dated May 16, 2018, to the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Food Safety and Inspection Service (FSIS). You requested access to a copy of records relating to the Implementation of the Humane Methods of Slaughter Act and the Poultry Products Inspection Act, from January 1, 2018 to May 16, 2018. We received your request in our Office on May 16, 2018.

The FSIS FOIA staff works with subject matter experts across the Agency to locate responsive documents. For this request, we conducted a records search in the Office of Data Integration and Food Protection. FSIS' search began on May 17, 2018. Our search includes responsive records in FSIS' control on that date.

We have located 587 pages that are responsive to your request. After a thorough review, we have determined that portions of pages fall within the exemptions to the FOIA's mandatory disclosure requirements, as explained below. In particular, we have determined that portions of these documents are exempt from disclosure under (b)(4) and (b)(6) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552, as amended. Accordingly, this request is granted in part.

Some responsive records constitute confidential commercial or financial information, which is exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 4, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4). Disclosure of this information may cause substantial competitive harm to the person from which this information was obtained. Further, disclosure of this information would impair the government's ability to obtain necessary information in the future.

Portions of the responsive records are exempt from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 6, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). Exemption 6 protects information that would constitute an unwarranted invasion of an individual's personal privacy. The types of information withheld under Exemption 6 include the names, addresses, or cell phone numbers of employees of Establishments and third parties, including, but not limited to interviewees or customers.

You may appeal this determination within 90 days from the date of this letter. Your appeal should include copies of your original request and this response, as well as a discussion of the reasons supporting your appeal. The envelope should be plainly marked to indicate that it contains a FOIA appeal. If you decide to appeal this determination, please send your appeal to:

Please be advised that your FOIA request, including your identity and the information made available, is releasable to the public under any subsequent FOIA requests. However, FSIS does not release your personal privacy information, such as home addresses, telephone numbers, or Social Security Numbers, all of which are protected from disclosure under FOIA Exemption 6.

If you have any questions about the way this request was handled, or about the USDA's FOIA regulations, please contact Alison Kilrain at (202)-720-0283 or via email at Alison.Kilrain@fsis.usda.gov. If you have general questions about FSIS' FOIA procedures or regulations, please contact our FOIA Public Liaison, Mark Brook, at 202-690-1787 or via email at Mark.Brook@fsis.usda.gov.

Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows: Office of Government Information Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, e-mail at ogis@nara.gov; telephone at 202-741-5770; or facsimile at 202-741-5769.

Thank you for your interest in FSIS programs and policies.

Sincerely,

Arianne M. Perkins
