

United States Department of Agriculture

Food Safety and Inspection
Service

Washington, D.C.
20250

FSIS Letterhead Certificate for Poultry Meat and Meat Products Exported to Solomon Islands from the United States of America

Date Issued: _____ Certificate Number: _____

I, the undersigned FSIS Official Veterinarian, certify that the poultry meat and poultry meat products satisfy the following requirements:

1. Were derived from birds which have been kept in a Newcastle Disease, as defined by the World Organization for Animal Health (OIE), free county since they were hatched or for at least the past 21 days, or the poultry meat has been treated to inactivate the Newcastle disease virus in accordance with OIE recommendations.
2. Were derived from birds which have been kept in a high pathogenicity avian influenza (HPAI), as defined by the OIE, free county since they were hatched or for the past 21 days, or the poultry meat has been treated to inactivate the HPAI disease virus in accordance with OIE recommendations.
3. a. Were derived from birds which have been slaughtered in an approved abattoir in a county free of Newcastle disease and HPAI, as both diseases are defined by the OIE;

OR

 b. The poultry meat has been treated to inactivate the virus of concern in accordance with OIE recommendations, and packaged in accordance with the requirements of the United States including the necessary precautions to avoid product contamination.
4. Were produced in accordance with the National Residue Program and determined safe for human consumption and were processed, prepared, packaged, stored and transported according to the regulations of the United States of America.

Signature of FSIS Official Veterinarian: _____

Printed Name: _____

Title/Professional Degree: _____