NOTICE OF SUSPENSION

Dear Mr. Schrader,

This letter confirms verbal notification provided to Ms. Kara Schrader, Plant Manager, by Mr. Joseph Schein, Deputy District Manager (DDM), at approximately 0945 hours on February 04, 2020, of the Food Safety and Inspection Service's (FSIS) decision to suspend the assignment of Inspection Program Personnel (IPP) for ALL Slaughter Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point (HACCP) processes at Schrader Farms Meat Market (Est. 44950), located in Romulus, NY. FSIS is issuing this notification in accordance with the Rules of Practice, Title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations (9 CFR) Part 500.3(b).

Findings/Basis for Action

On February 04, 2020, at approximately 0830 hours, the Consumer Safety Inspector (CSI) observed the following egregious Humane Handling event at your establishment. While the CSI was conducting post-mortem inspection of a previously slaughtered swine, she noticed an increased amount of movement of a swine on the rail as it was being put into the scalding tank and asked the establishment employee if it was dead. The employee pulled the animal back from the scalding tank and when the CSI lifted the ear of the pig, she observed blinking, tracking eye movements, licking of the nose with its tongue, a righting reflex, and heard some grunting. The employee then proceeded to stick the pig again, without re-stunning it. The animal bled out and showed no further signs of sensibility. The CSI proceeded to take a regulatory control action and rejected the stun box with USDA Retain/Reject tag# B38928387. The establishment is receiving a Notice of Suspension (NOS) for allowing a stunned animal to regain sensibility and not re-stunning the conscious animal while it was on the rail. The establishment does not currently operate under a Robust Systematic Approach.

For electrical stunning, Regulations 9 CFR Part 313.30(a)(4) states that "The stunned animal shall remain in a state of surgical anesthesia through shackling, sticking, and bleeding"

Background/Authority

The Federal Meat Inspection Act (FMIA) [21 U.S.C. 603 sec. 3. (b)] states, “for preventing the inhumane slaughtering of livestock, the Secretary shall cause to be made, by inspectors appointed for that purpose, an examination and inspection of the method by which cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, or other equines are slaughtered and handled in connection with slaughter in the slaughtering establishments inspected under this Act. The Secretary may refuse to provide inspection to a new slaughtering establishment or may cause inspection to be temporarily suspended at a slaughtering establishment if the Secretary finds that any cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, or other equines have been slaughtered or handled in connection with slaughter at such establishment by any method not in accordance with Sections 1901 to 1906 of Title 7 until the establishment furnishes assurances satisfactory to the Secretary that all slaughtering and handling in connection with slaughter of livestock shall be in accordance with such a method.” In addition, under prohibited acts, 21 U.S.C. 610 sec 10 (b), “No person, firm or corporation shall, with the respect to any cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, and other equines, or any carcasses, parts of carcasses, meat or meat food products of any such animals slaughter or handle in connection with slaughter any such animals in any manner not in accordance with sections 1901 to 1906 of Title 7.”

Under the authorities of the FMIA, FSIS has prescribed rules and regulations required for establishments producing meat products, including the requirements pertaining to Sanitation Performance Standards (SPS), Sanitation Standard Operating Procedures (SSOP), Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point (HACCP) 9 CFR Parts 416, 417, and other matters. FSIS has also developed Rules of Practice regarding the enforcement action that it may take and includes procedures for taking a withholding action and/or suspension, with or without prior notification, and for filing a complaint to withdraw a Grant of Inspection.

7 U. S. C. 1901

Humane Methods of Slaughtering Act 7 USC 1901 states, “The Congress finds that the use of humane methods in the slaughter of livestock prevents needless suffering; results in safer and better working conditions for persons engaged in the slaughtering industry; brings about improvement of products and economies in slaughtering operations; and produces other benefits for producers, processors, and consumers which tend to expedite an orderly flow of livestock and livestock products in interstate and foreign commerce. It is therefore declared to be the policy of the United States that the slaughtering of livestock and the handling of livestock in connection with slaughter shall be carried out only by humane methods.”

7 U. S. C. 1902

The Humane Methods of Slaughtering Act 7 USC 1902 states, “No method of slaughtering or handling in connection with slaughtering shall be deemed to comply with the public policy of the United States unless it is humane.”

When an egregious situation exists, FSIS can refuse to render inspection and indefinitely withdraw inspection from an establishment provided the establishment is afforded the right to an administrative hearing.

Under the authority of the above Acts, FSIS has prescribed rules and regulations required for establishments producing meat and poultry products, including the requirements pertaining to Humane Slaughter of Livestock, as required by 9 CFR 313, and other matters.
